There are flattering prospects that Louisville's opera festival this week will be a grand success. It will last from the 9th to the 12th insts.

Statistics show that a great many distinguished men marry in June.
Cleveland only followed the example set by many of us in the past.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Mr. Tom L. Cannon, of Henderson, to Miss Daisy O'Hannon, of St. Louis.
Mr. Cannon was formerly editor of the Henderson Sentinel but has more recently engaged in a more lucrative business than running a country newspaper. He has many friends among the journalistic ranks who will be glad to know that his bacter for career will end on the 23rd inst.

About a thousand cards announcing the marriage of the President were sent out to the blue bloods of Washington society Friday and to intimate friends of the President and Mrs. Cleveland in Albany and Buffalo. They were very simple and plain and read as follows:

"Mr. Grover Cleveland and Miss Frances Folsom married on Wednesday, June 2, 1886. Executive Mansion, Washington.

Mr. Manning has tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Treas-him to let his resignation lie over health has been very bad for some time and, accepting the suggestion of the President, he has gone to Hot Springs, Va., to try to regain his health and strength.

Harry Soper, was thrown over the talking on Lo Young bridge, about five miles south of Carlisle, and but a short time.

About a year ago the wife of Mr.
J. Wesley Parrish, of this county, died. In April his daughter married Mr. J. Henry Turpin. In May Mr.
Turpin died. In June, last Tuesday,
Mr. Parrish married Miss Annie E.
Turpin, sister to J. Henry Turpin, deceased. Were Mr. Turpin alive Mr. Parrish would be brother-in-law of his—Parrish's son-in-law; and it is yet possible for Mr. Parrish's child to be a cousin of his grand-child.
This is a rare occurrence. The widowed daughter is 14 years old—

Twenty years ago, in Grant Coun-son, sons of prosperous farmers, quarrelled about the sale of some sheep, and Anderson shot and killed Osborn. It was said to have been an unprovoked murder and Anderson fled the State and disappeared. A short while ago a man 40 years old, and haggard, returned to the scene of the crime, which had almost been forgotten, and gave himself up, saying he was Osborn's slayer. He was disbelieved at first, but the matter was investigated and new indictments were made out and the case has been called for trial.
